Procedure for Dealing with Persistent and Unreasonable Complaints or Harassment

Tame River Educational Trust

Great schools in which to learn, teach and belong

Introduction

The Headteacher and staff deal with specific complaints as part of their day-to-day management of the school in accordance with the Trust's Handling Complaints Policy and Procedure.

The majority of complaints are handled in an informal manner and are resolved quickly, sensitively and to the satisfaction of the complainant.

However, there are occasions when complainants behave in an unreasonable manner when raising and/or pursuing concerns. The consequences are that the actions of the complainants begin to impact negatively on the day-to-day running of the school and directly or indirectly the overall well-being of the students or staff in the school. In these exceptional circumstances the school / Trust may take action in accordance with this policy.

1. Aims:

The aims of this procedure are to:

- Uphold the standards of courtesy and reasonableness that should characterise all communication between the school and persons who wish to express a concern or pursue a complaint.
- Support the well-being of students, staff and everyone else who has legitimate interest in the work of the school, including Governors and parents.
- Deal fairly, honestly, openly and transparently with those who make persistent, unreasonable or vexatious complaints and those who harass members of staff in the school while ensuring that other stakeholders suffer no detriment.

2. Parents Expectations of the School:

Parents/carers/members of the public who raise either informal concerns or formal complaints with the school can expect the school to:

- Communicate via the school website:
 - How and when problems can be raised with the school
 - The existence of the school's Complaints Policy
 - The existence of the procedures for Dealing with Persistent and Unreasonable Complaints and/or Harassment.
- Respond with a reasonable time.
- Be available for consultation within reasonable time limits bearing in mind the needs of the student within the school and the nature of the complaint.
- Respond with courtesy and respect: attempt to resolve problems using reasonable means in line with the school's Complaints Procedure, other policies and practice and in line with advice from the Department for Education (DfE) keep complainants informed of progress towards a resolution of the issues raised.

3. The School's Expectations of Parents/Carers/Members of the Public:

The school can expect parents/carers/members of the public who wish to raise problems with the school to:

- treat all staff with courtesy and respect;
- respect the needs and well-being of students and staff;
- avoid any use, or threatened use, of violence to people or property;
- avoid any aggression or verbal abuse;

- recognise the time constraints under which members of staff work and allow the school a reasonable time to respond;
- recognise that resolving a specific problem can sometimes take some time.

4. Who is a Persistent / Unreasonable Complainant?

For the purpose of this procedure, a persistent complainant is a parent/carer or member of the public who complains about issues, either formally or informally, or frequently raises issues that the complainant considers to be within the remit of the school, and whose behaviour is unreasonable. Such behaviour may be characterised by:

- actions which are obsessive, persistent, harassing, prolific, repetitious;
- prolific correspondence or excessive email or telephone contact about a concern or complaint;
- uses Freedom of Information/Subject Access requests excessively and unreasonably
- an insistence upon pursuing unsubstantial complaints and/or unrealistic or unreasonable outcomes;
- an insistence upon pursuing complaints in an unreasonable manner;
- an insistence on only dealing with the Headteacher on all occasions irrespective of the issue and the level of delegation in the school to deal with such matters;
- an insistence upon repeatedly pursuing a complaint when the outcome is not satisfactory to the complainant but cannot be changed, for example, if the desired outcome is beyond the remit of the school because it is unlawful.

For the purpose of this procedure, harassment is the unreasonable pursuit of such actions as shown above in such a way that they:

- appear to be targeted over a significant period of time to one or more members of staff
- cause ongoing distress to individual member(s) of staff
- have a significant adverse effect on the whole/parts of the school community
- are pursued in a manner which can be perceived as intimidating and oppressive by the recipient. This could include situations where persistent demands and criticisms, whilst not particularly taxing or serious when viewed in isolation, have a cumulative effect over time of undermining confidence, well-being and health.

5. The School:

In the first instance the school will verbally inform the complainant that his/her behaviour is considered to be becoming unreasonable/unacceptable and, if it is not modified, action may be taken in accordance with this procedure.

This will be confirmed in writing (Letter 1).

If the behaviour is not modified the school will take some or all of the following actions as necessary, having regard to the nature of the complainant's behaviour and the effect of this on the school community:

- inform the complainant in writing that his/her behaviour is now considered by the school to be unreasonable/unacceptable and, therefore, to fall under the terms of this procedure (see Letter 2);
- inform the complainant that all meetings with a member of staff will be conducted with a second person present and that notes of meetings may be taken in the interests of all parties (see Letter 2);
- inform the complainant that, except in emergencies, all routine communication with the complainant to the school should be by letter only (see Letter 2) ;(in the case of physical, or verbal aggression) take advice from HR / Legal Services and consider warning the complainant about being banned from the school site; or proceed straight to a temporary ban;

- consider taking legal advice on pursuing a case under anti-harassment legislation;
- consider taking advice from the relevant authorities, including the Police about putting in place a specific procedure for dealing with complaints from the complainant, i.e. the complainant will not be able to deal directly with the Headteacher but only with a third person to be identified by the Governing Body of the school, who will investigate, determine whether or not the concern / complaint is reasonable or unreasonable and then advise the Headteacher accordingly.

Therefore, based on the above information, legitimate new complaints may still be considered even if the person making them is, or has been, subject to this procedure. However, the school will take advice from the relevant authorities.

If a complainant's persistent complaining/harassing behaviour is modified and is then resumed at a later date within a reasonable period of time, the school may resume the process identified above at an appropriate level. In these circumstances, advice may be sought from the relevant authorities.

Review:

The school will review as appropriate, and at a minimum once in a school year, any sanctions applied in the context of this policy.

Letter 1:

Initial letter informing a complainant that his/her behaviour is considered to fall below a reasonable/acceptable standard – sent via Signed for Delivery:

Dear

This letter is to inform you that the school considers your actions in [describe actions, dates, behaviour] on.....when you... .. to be unreasonable/unacceptable [delete as appropriate].

We would ask you to bear in mind the fact that such behaviour on a school site can be disruptive and distressing to students, staff and parents/carers [delete if behaviour complained of did not occur on the school site e.g. persistent use of email, verbally abusive telephonecalls].

We are aware that you have raised some concerns, and would advise you that these are usually dealt with most effectively through the school's Handling Complaints Procedure. At the moment we are dealing with these issues by [describe actions being taken to resolve concern].

Please note that the school's Procedure for Dealing with Persistent or Unreasonable Complaints/Harassment sets out standards of behaviour expected of all people in their dealings with the school. These include:

- behaving reasonably;
- treating others with courtesy and respect;
resolving complaints using the Complaints Policy and Procedure;
- avoiding physical and verbal aggression at all times.

The procedure also indicates the steps that we may take if these standards are breached. These include:

- making special arrangements for meetings and communication with the school;
- considering a ban from the school premises;
- considering legal action.

I would ask that you allow the school time to resolve the issues according to the correct procedures, and would assure you that we shall take every step to move this process forward as quickly as possible.

Yours sincerely

Headteacher

Delete A or B as applicable

A – For the foreseeable future, should you wish to meet with any member of staff, I would ask you to note:

- a third party from the school / Trust will be present;

B – For the foreseeable future, all meetings arising from any written communication with the school will not be conducted by a member of staff, but will be conducted by representing the school. I would ask you to note:

Exceptionally, these arrangements do not apply to any emergency involving insert the name of the student – in which case you should contact the school in the usual way.

These arrangements take effect straightaway. If you wish to make a representation about the contents of this letter, which may include any expressions of regret on your part and any assurances that you are prepared to give about your future good conduct, you can do so by writing to me at the school by state 10 working days from the date of the letter. If on receipt of your comments I consider that the arrangements outlined above should continue, you will be supplied with details of how to review a circumstance of your case.

While these arrangements are in place, with respect to normal access to information available on parents' evenings, this will be provided in a summary written report.

I do hope that the difficulties we are currently experiencing can soon be resolved.
